

Tullagh Strand:

Tullagh Strand is one long stretch of white soft sand. It is a beautiful horseshoe shaped beach with soft sand and crystal-clear water. Tullagh Strand is very near to Hotel. (9min drive from Ballyliffin)

Ballyliffin Beach

Ballyliffin Beach known also as Pollan Bay. The horizon is very beautiful and there is a grassy path at the top of the beach which is great for walking/running. The beach itself can be stoney and steep. It can be very windy and wild but very refreshing & pretty. (3min drive from Ballyliffin)

Culdaff Beach:

Culdaff Beach is our favorite beach in Donegal. Unspoilt. quiet. Stunning. Peaceful. One long stretch of golden sand, stunning views. Over a wee fishing harbour. Well worth a visit. (20mins drive from hotel)

Lagg beach/ Five Finger Strand:

Lagg beach is not as long a walk, as other beaches are but it has a beautiful backdrop with cliffs/mountains & huge sand dunes. It is on the way to Malin head and has a very pretty drive out to it. (20min drive from the hotel)

Dough Strand:

Donagh Strand is the beach opposite Lagg, so again very beautiful and sandy. The sand is very soft however the tide (8 mins drive from the hotel)

Kinnego Bay:

Kinnego Bay is mentioned by Lonely Planet On their international list of the nicest beaches to visit. It is really tricky to access with a dramatic winding incline but has beautiful golden sand, is very sheltered and secluded (30mins drive from the hotel)

Uris Lake Loops: (Hike)

Described as a challenging but rewarding hike. This is a 2-3 hour hike. Some more info on this and other hikes can be accessed via the link below/ on pic.

Clonmany Waterfall:

This is a relatively short and relaxed 30-40minute walk. It is paved the whole way with little bridges and picnic benches along the way.
